“Walking together, experiencing and sharing God’s love.”

OCTOBER 2019

Psalm 24

The earth is the Lord’s and all that is in it,
the world, and those who live in it;

for he has founded it on the seas,
and established it on the rivers.

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord?

And who shall stand in his holy place?

Those who have clean hands and pure hearts,
who do not lift up their souls to what is false,
and do not swear deceitfully.

They will receive blessings from the Lord,
and vindication from the God of their salvation.

Such is the company of those who seek him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob.

Selah

Lift up your heads, O gates!
and be lifted up, O ancient doors!
that the King of glory may come in.

Who is the King of glory?

The Lord, strong and mighty,
the Lord, mighty in battle.
Lift up your heads, O gates!
and be lifted up, O ancient doors!
that the King of glory may come in.

Who is this King of glory?

The Lord of hosts,
he is the King of glory.

Selah

This psalm reminds us that everything we have is from God. But then it takes us a step further and tells us that to see God face to face, we cannot lift up our souls to what is false. We are called to recognize that all we have comes from God. Acknowledging God’s abundance and provision, and then sharing generously from that provision will help us move in the direction the Psalmist tells us to, to have clean hands and pure hearts. And we are promised blessing, vindication and salvation when we do that.

Stewardship Is...

Love in Action

Session

Session met in a Regular (Stated) meeting on September 19, 2019, with Reverend InHo Kim of San Francisco Presbytery as guest moderator.

There were no major motions. Considerable discussion took place about our future pastoral leadership, to be continued at the next Regular (Stated) meeting on Thursday, October 17. We are praying that we will find the best person to provide continuity at Broadmoor and lead our church into a faithful future.

If you have any questions concerning these proceedings, please contact an elder.

— Respectfully submitted, Marian Hardin, Clerk of Session

Board Of Deacons

The Deacons would like to send our greetings to everyone! It's been a busy summer, and I know everyone is looking forward to the shorter days and cooler temperatures to come in the fall. I certainly am feeling "crazy busy." We embraced the month of September with regular prayer and devotion, encouraging our members to serve our community in faith as we prepare for the coming months. Thinking about it, after children are born, they grow and before you know it, are in college and gone. Friends move away, new friends come into our lives, projects end and new ones are taken up, jobs change, landmarks disappear and new ones become familiar. One constant thing in our lives is change. Despite the eagerness and challenges of finding pastoral leadership, waiting on God's call is a big challenge and change for us at church. I am sincerely grateful and thankful for our congregation and the leaders of our church for giving me the support and guidance to serve and lead our deacon ministry.

A Celebration of Life service was held here at BPC on August 31st for Jackie Hon with a reception afterwards courtesy of Jackie's family. A great big THANK YOU to all those who assisted in making this a successful event. We ask that you continue to pray for Jackie's family for comfort during this time of loss. A thank you note was received from the Hon family which states, "Dear BPC church members, we deeply appreciate all your prayers and help for Jackie's celebration of life."

A prayer chain is being offered for Richard and Judy Burnham as they and their families weather through the health issues that they are both facing. Eunice Brabec visited with Bill Holden. We also expressed joy by sending cards to Evelyn Masuda, Richard and Judy Burnham and Ben Bongers (the Haddox's friend).

Our next meeting is scheduled for October 13th. We continue with our assignments for coffee hour, communion preparation and pantry inventory, as well as our commitment to act as shepherds to our church and community.

My sincere gratitude and thanks to all our faithful deacons: Mike Allgire, Eunice Brabec, Douglas Cobb, Gerry Manis, Richard Murray, and Lina Sana. God Bless Us All!!!

— Respectfully submitted, David Pajarit, Deacon Moderator

Special Choir Notice

During the months of November, December, and January. the Choir will hold its rehearsals on Sunday mornings at 9:00 am instead of Wednesday evenings. This is to avoid having Choir members drive in the dark, especially on rainy nights.

Please come join us. No audition, just show up.

Fellowship Ministry

The Fellowship team met on September 1st after worship. Present were Jean Aro, Martha Espinosa, Betty Fong, Lina Sana, Geraldine Thompson, and myself. We discussed the new coffee hour schedule. The Fellowship team will host coffee hour on the fourth and fifth Sundays. We will fill in and make coffee and tea only on the second Sunday when no family signs up to host. Of course, any Sunday can be hosted by a church family. Just sign the list found in the Narthex every Sunday. I am thankful to the team for their commitment and we welcome anyone who would like to volunteer.

Presbyterian Women

On September 3rd Bonnie Cobb led the group with an introduction to the Horizons Bible Study "Love Carved in Stone." We discussed our next gathering which will be a Together-in-Service on Tuesday, October 22, 2019, 10:30 am with lunch after. We will be making blankets for veteran Bill Holden and others. We are also planning the Fall Feast for Sunday, November 10th.

Worship Ministry

Worship Ministry Team met on September 1st. We discussed World Communion Sunday and Advent.

We will have a potluck on September 29 and will not be celebrating World Communion Sunday as we have in past years, but we will still have decorated tables from around the world.

Because our guest speaker is not yet ordained, we will not have communion on World Communion Sunday, October 6. However, we will decorate our communion table with materials from different countries and decorate tables from around the world in Tweedie Hall. Communion this month will be on Sunday, October 20th. This year's Advent candle lighters have been selected and will be announced in the next issue.
