JANUARY 2023

From the Pastor

Happy New Year! I love the feeling that comes with each New Year. It always feels like a new beginning. I am not one to make New Year resolutions; however, I have some traditions I try to carry out on the first day of the New Year.

For many years, one of those traditions was going water skiing with my friends Rory and Donna on Saguaro Lake in Arizona. The challenge was the water temperature - usually hovering around 50 degrees. I began this tradition without a wetsuit, but quickly realized this was insane. By year two, I had my own wetsuit. Another New Year’s tradition, with these same friends, was midnight hiking through McDowell Mountain Park to watch the incredible night sky. What great memories.

Today my standing New Year’s tradition consists of a morning run. This tradition reminds me that even though my body is getting a bit older, that I have a few more aches and pains, I am still out here trying to stay healthy. It gives me promise for a good year.

The New Year is all about promise and hope. It is the time when we can look back over the previous year and see God’s hand in our lives, and at the same time look forward to seeing God opening new and fresh possibilities for us.

As I look back over 2022, I know God has definitely been with the Broadmoor Community. There have been ups and downs with Covid still lingering, however we are back in the sanctuary worshipping each Sunday. We are dedicated to making sure those on Zoom have a meaningful worship experience.

As we look forward to 2023, I invite all of us to keep our eyes and hearts open to God working in our midst. May we be willing to go where God is leading us - always staying open to new and fresh possibilities.
